Hit...

Hit...!

Carl, don't let the enemy come close to the transport ship

It's still a little bit!

Saying that is easy

but that's though...

Roger!

Thanks for the support!

We're
heading back

The mission is accomplished

There's
no problem

Though it will be s ome work for Hendrik

Team leader is your leg alright?

You have a good skill

Your support was very good

Yes

Eliard

Sorry for the work

Alright,
after all,
that's our job

The Aswan
will handle the rear
support

Bask will do some operation at Side 1's Banch 30

Ye
Yes!

We're
going to the bridge
Hurry
up!

The Hazel
is damaged
The repair won't be finished in time

As soon as the maintenance work is finished, sally out

Use the
Hi-Zack

Oh

Captain

It's not a bad thing that Bask
will owe us something for this thing

I will head to the preparations

Roger

Also if we have a support for the OS

There's no predecessor to a son of a GM and a Zaku

So he is thrown into real combat with such a thing

And we can't rely on the federation's data

It came just some days ago and we haven't done a test run

There's no way to be able to handle a brand new one so suddenly

The Hazel also seemed not to have been perfect

A test team is quite a dangerous job

If I think by now

But it's a task which has sense

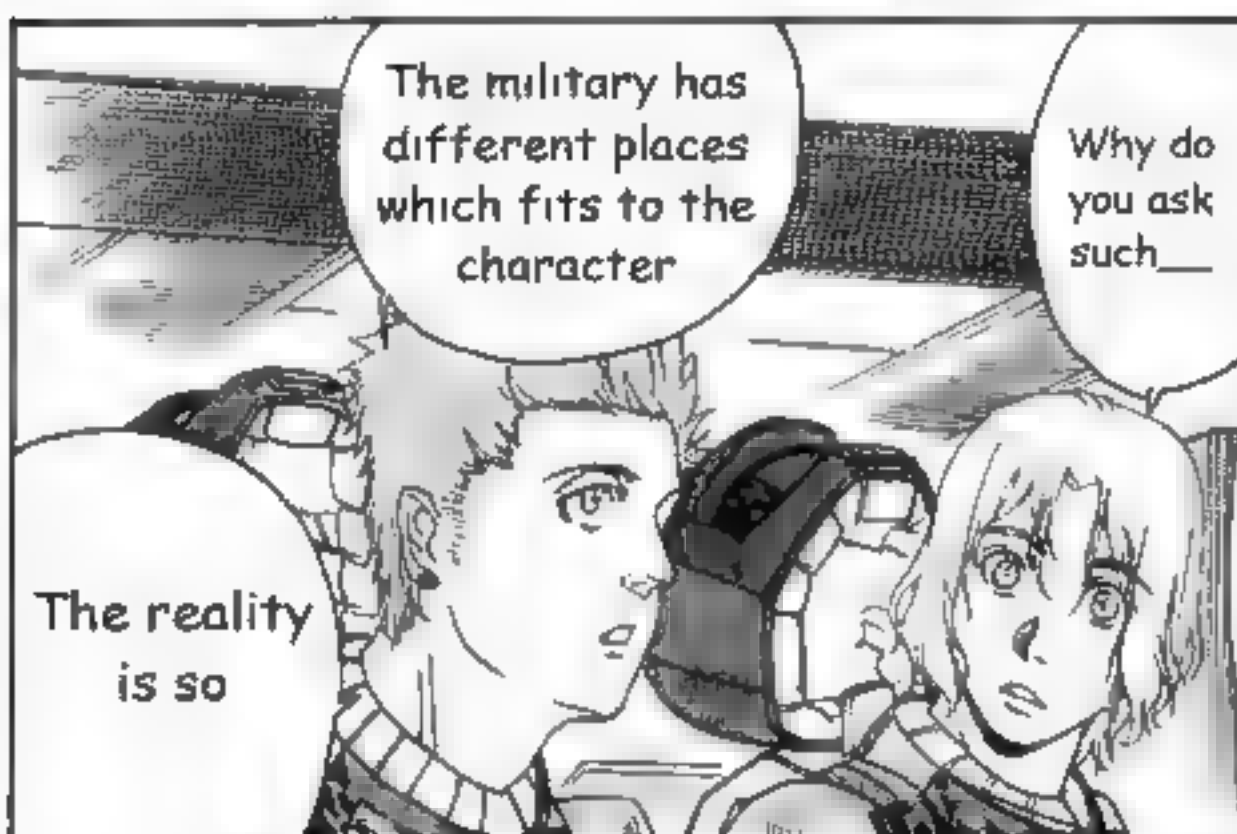

Also when you know that it's a quite dangerous machine It doesn't concern others

If we are told to ride, we have to ride it immediately

Call it realism

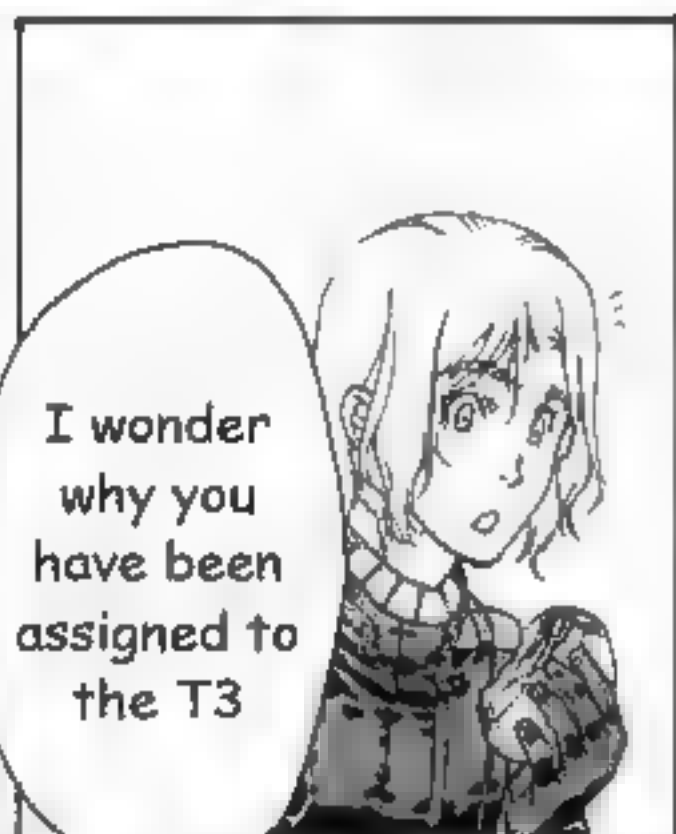

So you also get sometimes weak

The military has different places which fits to the character

Why do you ask such__

The reality is so

I wonder why you have been assigned to the T3

Therefore, I am lucky that I could just join

Titans I wrote the entrance application though knowing that it would be in vain

There is no way that a minority like a half Japanese, like me, could enter the Titans

When I was at the academy and at my regular battalion, my behavior was bad

I thought I would be assigned to such a place with trouble kids

But you don't seem to have any problems

No matter where I would have been assigned to Wha, ha, ha, ha!!

If you a trouble kid then I am a crook!

It's nothing to laugh

I thought that you would be depressed since you have so many continuous sally outs but you seem to be fine!

—I, was also a trouble kid

It's the same for me

There's
no ship
like target

There's
no reaction on
the radar

Is it a Gundam!?

A reaction on
the radar!
There's
three points.
They are
federation MS

Find it at all cost!

We can't allow that transport ship to get near Banch 30...

It doesn't sent out an allied FF signal

the exterior looks like a
Za..Zaku
but

No, two are the described GM type but the other one is unknown

What a disgusting
move....!!

Those Titans...

It seems that these are the guys, who turned Hazel's leg
into a bee's nest

Visually
confirmed!
Two MS are approaching

Right,
I can't forget the specialties of those,
who beat
me

do you think so?

Let's go!

Let's pay them back

To put shame onto the pride of Zeon in such a way...

We won't allow that!

The all direction channel...

The Zaku is
pride of Zeon!

Your
hesitation is like in the old days

You're
too antique!
